“IT Skill: The Pathway for a Successful Career in IT-Sector for Engineering Graduated”
Organised by
Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering
14 -06-2021, 2.00 PM to 3.00 PM

Organized in association with: ISTE Students Chapter and MITSAWA

Submitted by: Dr Pratap Ranjan Mohanty, Sr. Assistant Professor., Dept. of EEE

Resource Person: Mr. Akkenaguntla Karthik, Assistant System Engineer-Trainee at TCS

Attended: III B-Tech students (All branches) & MCA students of our institution, Faculties of our institution, participants from other institution (Total Number of participation: 194)

Mode: Microsoft Team

The session was started at 2 PM. The webinar was initiated by Dr. A V Pavan Kumar, HOD-EEE Department. The resource person Mr Akkenaguntla Karthik, was introduced by Dr. Pratap Ranjan Mohanty, Sr. Asst. Prof., Dept. of EEE. The resource expert addressed the significant IT-Sector and a software engineer. The prominent speaker focuses mainly to direct the student for a pathway towards IT profession.

1. At the beginning of the presentation, the eminent resource person rationalized everyone that the IT-sector has grown up to extend its service in almost all field like in agriculture, transportation, communication, broadcasting, banking, shopping, education, defence, medical, power and energy, industry automation etc.
2. The roll of software engineer was clarified by the speaker in well manner. The general inherent perception about the work of a software engineer is coding /programming only; which is completely wrong, well explained during the presentation.
3. IT engineers are high-level IT personnel who are involved to design, install, and maintain a system. They are responsible for testing, configuring, and troubleshooting hardware, software, and networking systems to meet the needs of the employer. IT engineers may also be required to train staff and manage projects.
4. IT has entered and benefited every sector of industry; it was well explained by the distinguished speaker.
5. The eminent resource person highlighted the career paths in the IT industry for the fresh engineering graduates. The pathways for IT-sector can be classified into the two main fields of hardware and software.

Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering

6. Development, programming, software testing, maintenance and support are under the software field. For all these, the related areas are computer operations, database administration, sales/marketing, and data-centre management. The prominent speaker indicated to the students towards Web development, DevOps, Mobile development, technical stack (e.g. Python, Ruby etc) for software field.
7. Manufacturing, maintenance, research & development, management are under the hardware field. For all these, the related areas are LabVIEW, MATLAB, Programming skills (e.g. Python, Embedded programming).
8. The honourable speaker suggested to learn any of the primary skill among those to enter IT-sector. After entering/learning primary skills, one can learn data science, cloud computing, AI/ML, block chain etc.
9. The prominent speaker highlighted the importance of certification skills during the session. He suggested to do more numbers of certifications during engineering study without if possible. Also, he shared more online links through which student can get certifications without investing more money. Besides, it added to his presentation that most of the courses and skill development trainings are free.
10. The significance of project during engineering study for getting a job is being well highlighted in the session. Also, the resource person encouraged the student for making publication.
11. The prominent speaker explained that a good software engineer should be a collaborator, team player, creative thinker, problem-solver, communicator.
12. At the end of the presentation, the prominent alumni shared his life in MITS and pathways up to his recent company to encourage and strengthen the willingness towards extra activities and skills.

Feedback: The students were moreover passionate to know about the IT Skills and the pathways for career as an IT engineer.

The session was concluded followed by a vote of thanks which was given by Dr. A V Pavan Kumar, HOD-EEE Department.

The initial part (what the host called as a game) was too long. However he wanted to interact with the audience which couldn't work because of it being an online session. But if it could been an offline session this idea would definetly work.
